To

All Provincial Governments / Chief Commissioners.

CIVIL DEFENCE DEPARTMENT CIRCULAR No.586/43.

Subject:- Badges for Ex-Students of Civil Defence Instructors' and Specialist Schools.

Sir,

I am directed to inform you that the Government of India have decided to issue, on payment, a badge to each student qualifying at a Civil Defence Department Instructors' or Specialist School, to instruct in one or more subjects.

It is not yet possible to furnish samples or to quote a firm price, but it is intended that the badge should take the form of a small brooch to be worn on the lapel, the design being a general one appropriate to students from both types of school; and it is not anticipated that the price, per badge, will exceed Re.1/-.

It is proposed to issue the badges in bulk to the Provincial Government for retail to those concerned, and in this connection I am to request you (you) an indication, at an early date, of the number of badges they (you) are likely to require.

I have the honour to be,
Sir,
Your most obedient servant,
